

Illuminating our Impact

2022 Annual Report

*Catholic Charities Bureau

Dear Friends of Catholic Charities Bureau:

As Bishop of the Diocese of Superior I am pleased to share with you the 2022 Annual Report. On the following pages we shine a light on the impact of Catholic Charities Bureau's programs in Northern Wisconsin and beyond. I am filled with joy by the difference that is made in the many communities by our talented and dedicated staff, volunteers and board directors. These individuals strive to carry out the Mission "...To meet the critical needs and issues of our society..., To collaborate with all people of goodwill to alleviate human suffering.... To create an environment of human dignity..., and, To translate our mission and vision into goal's, commitments and action.

I offer my sincere appreciation to the people of the Diocese of Superior who have supported the important services we provide. Your care, concern, and prayers sustain our programs and services. I thank you for your support and dedication to improving the lives of so many individuals and families.

For all of this, we are grateful to Almighty God.

As I remain yours in Christ,

Most Reverend James. P. Powers
Bishop, Diocese of Superior

Dear Friends,

Catholic Charities Bureau has served the Diocese of Superior and beyond for over 100 years. We continue to provide vital services that are significant in quantity and quality, offered ecumenically, and that complement the efforts of others.

We are sincerely appreciative of the continued support of Bishop Powers, the Membership, board of directors, volunteers, and employees. The dedication of these individual's talent and time is part of what makes this organization a beacon of need.

With this 2022 Annual Report, we are honored to share information that illuminates the impact of our programs and services that meet the critical needs and issues of our society. Through the collaboration with all people of goodwill, we will continue to profess the dignity of each person as a creation of God. We continue to sustain our legacy by providing help and creating hope to those we are called to serve.

We appreciate your trust and your continued support of Catholic Charities Bureau this past year.

Mission Statement of Catholic Charities Bureau

under the pastoral leadership of our Diocesan Bishop:

To carry on the redeeming work of our Lord by reflecting gospel values and the moral teaching of the Church.

To meet the critical needs and issues of our society through the use of our gifts and resources by mobilizing the Christian community in partnership with private and public enterprise.

To collaborate with all people of goodwill to alleviate human suffering by sponsoring direct service programs for the poor, the disadvantaged, the disabled, the elderly and children with special needs.

To create an environment of human dignity based on justice, mutual respect, understanding and trust. We profess the dignity of each person as a creation of God. This truth becomes the foundation of our great respect and love of each individual.

To translate our mission and vision into goals, commitments and action.

Catholic Charities Bureau Statement of Philosophy

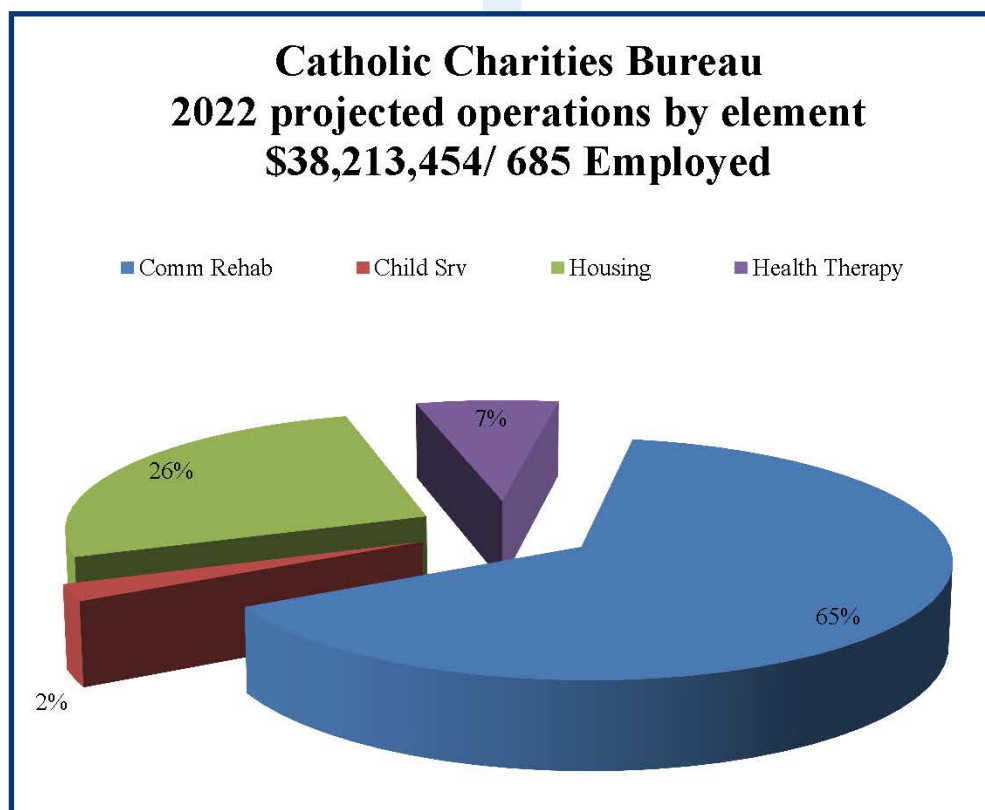

Catholic Charities has since 1917 been providing services to the poor and disadvantaged as an expression of the social ministry of the Catholic Church in the Diocese of Superior.

Accordingly, the purpose of the Catholic Charities Bureau is to be an effective sign of the charity of Christ. To this end, Catholic Charities:

Provides services that are significant in quantity and quality.

Assures an Ecumenical orientation exists in that no distinctions are made by race, sex, or religion in reference to clients served, staff employed and board directors appointed.

Avoids unnecessary duplication of services already adequately provided by governmental or public organizations and other private agencies. Our programs are intended to complement the efforts of others.

Code Of Ethics

CATHOLIC CHARITIES BUREAU, INC.
DIOCESE OF SUPERIOR

Code I:

We will support the sanctity and dignity of human life and recognize the central role of the family in our society. We will respect and protect the dignity of the individual.

Code II:

We will give first consideration in the provision of our service to assist those members of our community who are most vulnerable and least able to help themselves.

Code III:

We will practice the virtues of charity and justice in our relationships with one another and with the people we serve as well as in our dealings with the community at large.

Code IV:

We will utilize our personal talents, training and experience for the benefit of enriching the lives of the people we serve.

Code V:

We will respect and conform to civil law and its governance. We will also seek to peacefully change those civil practices that adversely affect the well-being of the people we serve.

Code VI:

We will as faithful stewards assure organizational integrity by exercising prudent judgment in the utilization of the resources that are entrusted to us.

Code VII:

We will engage in activities that promote the well-being of the organization and avoid participation in actions that are intended to serve personal or private interests.

Code VIII:

We will guarantee confidentiality as a living principle within the organization and establish policies and procedures to protect the interests of the people we serve, our governing boards and our personnel.

Code IX:

We will expect all persons affiliated with Catholic Charities to conduct themselves in a professional manner that brings credibility to the organization.

Code X:

We will collaborate with individuals, groups and other people of good will to achieve the fullest measure of charity and justice and strive to meet the highest standards of program excellence.
